Re: Haritatos v. Hasbro
Civil Action No. 05-CV-930
Our File No. 115_003

Dear Magistrate Judge DiBianco:

Plaintiff, Spero Haritatos, hereby requests that the dates for submitting expert reports be rescheduled and therefore that the discovery cut-off date also be rescheduled. In a telephone conference with your Courtroom Deputy Clerk, Kathy Gridley, on June 26, 2006, she recommended that the Plaintiff raise the request through the electronic submission of a letter brief.

Plaintiff's expert report, Defendant's expert report, and rebuttal expert reports are currently due July 1, 2006, August 15, 2006, and August 30, 2006, respectively. The discovery completion date is currently set for September 29, 2006.

Plaintiff requests that the expert report dates be rescheduled because a vast amount of factual discovery has not yet been completed, and because the results of that discovery will likely be needed for review by any experts and the preparation of expert reports. For example, Plaintiff's depositions of each of the Defendants representatives have been postponed such that depositions of certain personnel of Defendant Toys "R" Us are currently scheduled for July 10 & 11, 2006, and depositions of certain personnel of Defendant Hasbro are currently scheduled for August 14-16, 2006. In addition, Plaintiff is awaiting the complete response from Defendant Toys "R" Us to Plaintiff's April 18, 2006 letter concerning continuing problems with Defendant Toys "R" Us's initial disclosures and discovery responses and document production.

Plaintiff sent e-mails to the counsel for both Defendants on June 15, 2006 and again on June 21, 2006 requesting their positions concerning a proposed rescheduling of the deadlines for submitting expert reports. To date, Defendants' counsel have not provided any response.

Plaintiff prays that the scheduled dates for expert reports be postponed, and that they be rescheduled for October 20, November 8, and November 30, 2006, respectively. Plaintiff also requests that the discovery cut-off date of September 29, 2006 be concurrently rescheduled to December 29, 2006.

Respectfully Submitted,
